The New York Strike.

The New York Railway strike is all but over. President Webb expects sixty men to arrive this morning from Pittsburgh. These with those brought from other points number to 250. Great progress will be made during the day clearing the various freight yards.

Intend to Strike.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—The Captains and a majority of the crew of the Danube Navigation Co., have given notice to their employers of their intention to strike on September 1st.

Thieves in Calgary.

CALGARY, Aug. 14.—Sneak thieves broke into Chapman's hardware store on Sunday night, getting twenty dollars from the till. The Police state that over twenty crooks are in town, having followed the races from British Columbia.

Dead.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Cardinal Newman died on the 12th inst.

Big Fire.

SPOKANE FALLS, Aug. 14.—A telephone
just received here, states that the town of Dayton is on fire. Six large blocks are destroyed.

To be Published in French only.

A proclamation appears in the Official Gazette stating that in future all notices
and resolutions of the Municipal Council of St. Louis, Rousselleurs, Richelieu county, Que., will appear in French only.

Petitions.

Petitions signed by over 5,000 people in different counties in the eastern townships, have been forwarded to Premier Mercier asking him to take Dr.
Degrosbois, local member for Sheffield,
into the Cabinet.

Dead.

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—A hero of Batoche,
Staff-Sgt. Carson, Royal Grenadiers, died to day. He had served in the twentieth battalion and his personal bravery
during the Northwest rebellion, in carrying wounded comrades off the field under heavy fire, was much talked of at that time.

On the War-path.

The steamer Thistle, belonging to the Reid, Fish Co., arrived from Buffalo Bay and reports that a band of Indians under chief Pow Wow Shon and Flatmouth, stole the contents and forcibly took provisions of the camp. There are only seven whites, who are unarmed. The Indians are fully armed and covered with war paint. They gave the Company five days to get out everything or there would be trouble. The Company has been in the habit of giving Indians fish oil, but stopped this spring. This is the primary cause of the trouble.

Harvesters.

Two cars, with about eighty men, left here to-night for Manitoba, their object being to take off the harvest. Many more would have gone but in many cases they wanted free passes which could not be obtained.

DUCK LAKE.

Mann Bros. and Matheson have finished their grading contracts, and rails are being laid which will reach McFarlane Station by Saturday.

The following telegram was received by the Secretary of the demonstration committee from Sir John A. Macdonald:

ST. PATRICK, Que., August 13.
To H. McLENNAN, Secretary, Duck Lake.

I heartily congratulate the people of Duck Lake on the completion of their railway, and thank them for the invitation to assist at their demonstrations,
which I much regret my engagements
will not allow me to accept.

(Signed) JOHN A. MACDONALD.

We need hardly say our people were much disappointed. It is the intention to invite one or two of our Cabinet Ministers.

Mr. Stull, of your town, arrived here
on Wednesday evening and will take Mr.
Pozzer's place during his absence in the East.

Quite a number of new buildings are being put up on the town site. Stobart & Co. are putting up a handsome store front; T. O. Davis, a very fine store; L.
Janquai, a restaurant and boarding house,
Dr. Stewart, a surgery and drug store;
L. R. St. Louis, implement and warehouse;
and Angus Thompson, a fine hotel. Several others are putting up small buildings.

Mrs. Cameron will leave this week for Battleford to take position of matron in the Industrial School.

The Police have been looking around the past few days for a man said to be in a nude state in the woods.

Mrs. T. O. Davis and Miss Patterson came in on Wednesday. They like our town very much and no doubt will soon
take up their residence permanently.

Mr. Robert Wyld, better known as Bob of Battleford, is expected here on Saturday.

Our old friend, Mr. Brooks, Supt. of construction on the railway, is making his headquarters here, as is also Dr.
Sweet.

Barley is all cut in this district, and farmers are now busy cutting oats and in many cases wheat. The latter will average about twenty-five bushels to the acre.

COMMUNICATIONS.

It must be distinctly understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by correspondents.

THE SIOUX MISSION.

To the Editor of the Times.

Allow me to refer to a local in the Saskatchewan of this week regarding a meeting held in St. Paul's church on Tuesday evening in the interest of a Sioux Mission. In it the editor tries to throw a wet blanket on the scheme by insinuating that the promoters of it are not sufficiently experienced in philanthropic efforts in Prince Albert and also by saying, in effect, that the financial position of the Church does not warrant such expense. Perhaps the editor of the Saskatchewan might find the cause of the present unsettled and uncertain condition of the church in its neglect to give the gospel to the pagans who are at its door. Can anyone give a single instance in which a church has been impoverished—financially or spiritually—by engaging in mission work? On the contrary many are the instances in which churches have been benefitted financially as well as spiritually by engaging in such work, and doubtless it will be so in this case.

Is it not the special duty of the people of this town to do what they can to christianize these Indians? Has the editor of the Saskatchewan ever used his duty
in the matter?

CHARITY.

Waghorn's Guide for August is to hand, and embodies all the recent changes in the railway service, mails, stage routes, &c. We note the opening of new Post Offices at:—St. Malo, Lot 48-4-4 E;
Two Creeks, Section 6 13-26; Manigota-
gau, Township 24-8 E; Pasadena, 2L-4-13;
Plum Coulee, 2-33; Onion Lake, Township 54-27 West 3; Belles; 15-6-26; Coalfields, 34-16 West 2; and additions to Land Titles Districts, tables giving weights and measures, and express rates on packages from 1 lb. to 100 lbs.

We hope our city fathers are not losing sight of the fact that the time for the driving of the last spike is rapidly getting closer. We regret to hear that Sir John will be unable to get here, but there are many others that can. Why not invite His Honor the Lieut.-Governor, the Minister of Interior, Mr. Mercier and others, who we believe would gladly come. Don't put off making arrangements too long, gentlemen, Prince Albert expects you to do your duty on this occasion and to do it well.

FRIDAY, AUG. 15, 1890.

GENTLEMEN, GET A MOVE ON.

One month to-day the contractors hope to finish the construction of Saskatchewan's first railway, and up to date the public have no knowledge of any steps being taken towards the proper celebration of so important an event. Other towns take advantage of every important occurrence to boom their districts. Regina's Council did not allow the first sod of this same road to be turned without accepting the occasion to forward Regina's interests; Calgary did not allow work on the C. & E. road to start before attractions were gotten up which induced hundreds of people to visit that city of rapid growth. The same activity is true of terminal points of every other railway within Manitoba or the Territories. Prince Albert can hardly afford to sleep any longer. Our Town Council must waken up and take active steps towards celebrating in a proper style the driving of the last spike of that railway which will yet prove one of the most important started in the Territories. Should the Town Council not feel equal to the occasion, the Mayor should at once call a public meeting. We feel satisfied our citizens will offer active assistance. Prompt action must be taken. Only a month remains in which to make a multitude of arrangements. The Mayor and Council are looked to as the proper authority to start the work, one of the largest celebrations Prince Albert has ever had, must be undertaken and Manitoba and the rest of the Territories should be advised that such was going to be the case.

Pursuant to our promise made last week, we have examined papers in connection with the recent purchase of High School books, and now have no hesitation in saying that they contain sufficient reasons to justify any ratepaper in criticising the Board's action pending the purchase. Chorzin's latter, for all practical purposes was correct; he neglected to allow on Jardine & Co.'s original tender a discount of 10% which was included, but even with this the position of the two competitors was not changed, Jardine & Co. were the lowest on the full list, but each book had a specified price, and on the particular ones required, E. J. Cann was the lowest and should have received the contract for supplying them. The Board thought differently and again asked for final tenders, with the result that Mr. Cann refused to offer any further prices but Jardine & Co., within a few days, are able to offer such wholesome reductions that their second tender is found to be seventy-five (not forty-five) cents lower than that originally handed in by E. J. Cann. Standard works do not fluctuate in price at the above speed, and no reasonable explanation has yet been given, why such an opportunity for formulating reductions should have been offered a dealer, and until the Board see fit to publish further particulars the public will believe that "Chorzin" was justified in insinuating that the action of the Board on this question was not fair and that for some mysterious reason the prices at which books were originally offered had not been kept as secret as in all honor should have been the case.

The School Board have demanded some $3,000 from the Town Council. They should receive from 70 to 75 per cent of teacher's salaries from the Government an amount equal to $2,800, thus our system costs the nice little sum of nearly $6,000; not bad for a small town, but very unsatisfactory to those who pay the bulk of our taxes. The Board should publish their estimated receipts and expenditures, for public information.

The learned but peculiar author of Crooked proceedings in high places don't relish the stand taken by us on the recent purchase of school books; we never expected that he would. Under most extraordinary circumstances he secured the contract and no doubt objects to seeing the question kept open.

How soon one falls from grace. Our young people have started a movement for the extending of civilizing influences among the Indians and it does not meet with the approval of the now managing editor.

Another week has passed away and still our inexperienced River street friend has not seen fit to publish some interesting reports presented by him to the town's only joint stock Co., (Ltd.)

The scientific editor has been running to the dog(s) for the past few weeks.

THE INDIAN PROBLEM.

The Indian problem is certainly one of the most important questions of the day. The proprietary rights of the Indians to the soil may perhaps be open to discussion; the Canadian Government however has acknowledged these rights, and has entered into treaty obligations with the various tribes of Indians in the Northwest, and in the older provinces. In the Territories, the Indians in surrendering their rights, have secured under treaty certain privileges; they are wards of the Government, which has guaranteed to protect, care for, and educate them. Immediately after the transfer of the Territories to Canada, large bands of Indians were thrown on the Government for support, and a policy of Indian administration had to be decided upon; the policy of the Government has now advanced beyond an experimental stage, and the experience of twenty years has to a large extent pointed out the policy of the future.

On all sides it is acknowledged that the school must be an important factor in solving the Indian problem; the older generation of Indians is beyond the reach of civilization, it is impossible now to overcome the peculiarities of character inherited through centuries of ignorance and superstition; with the rising generation it is different, if judiciously controlled, they are open to the influences of modern education which affords the only hope of success for the future.

The U. S. authorities have had a varied and costly experience of Indian affairs while in many respects their policy may have been open to criticism, their experience is of the greatest value.

Gen. Morgan, U. S. Commissioner of Indian Affairs, is introducing a better system of administration. In outlining the new policy he lays particular stress on two points, "allotment of lands in severalty," that is the giving of lands to individual owners and the abolishing the system of holding lands on the communistic principle; of the second point he says, "The paramount duty of the house is to prepare the rising generation of Indians for the new order of things, thus forced upon them. A comprehensive system of education modeled after the Public School system, but adapted to special exigencies of the Indian youth; embracing all persons of school age, compulsory in its demands, and uniformly administered, should be developed as rapidly as possible." "The work of Indian education should be completely systematized, the camp schools, agency boarding schools and the great industrial schools should be related to each other so as to form a connected and complete whole; so far as possible there should be a uniform course of study, similar methods of instruction, the same text books, and a carefully organized and well understood system of industrial training."

In the Northwest there is a large expenditure for Indian Schools; and recently Industrial Schools have been established at important centres. In the last report on Indian Affairs, mention is made of the growing appreciation, shown by the Indians, of the school privileges afforded them; this is a good sign of progress and should be encouraged in every way.

We understand that the Indians on the various reserves around Prince Albert are petitioning for the establishment of an Industrial school within reasonable distance of their reserves. They deserve well at the hands of the Government; in times of trial they have shown themselves loyal; their reserves show signs of industry and marked progress; they certainly have proved themselves worthy of the most liberal consideration of the government, and we have no doubt that in making their fair and just requests, they will have the support of all who take an interest in their welfare.

THE LAST SAD RITES

Sunday morning last at 11:45 o'clock, the barracks flag was seen floating from half mast and the word was quickly passed around that poor Montgomery had gone. On the Thursday morning previous no one gave stronger evidence of a long and useful life than he, but in the discharge of his duty the accident, reported last week, occurred and in a second Sergt. A. E. G. Montgomery received the fall which caused his death and on Monday afternoon his body was laid to rest by his masonic brethren and companions of the force, surrounded by the largest assembly ever seen at a single burial in Prince Albert.

At 12:30 the Masons assembled at their lodge room and proceeded to the Barracks where they immediately took possession of the death chamber and the usual masonic service was performed. A profusion of flowers filled every table and the coffin was buried in wreaths emblematic of the society of which he was so worthy a member.

At two o'clock the Police firing party and band formed on the Barrack Square and the members of Kinistino Lodge and visiting brethren immediately took up their position. The body was tenderly raised and placed upon the gun carriage by six non-commissioned officers, and two of his former companions led his trooper to the foot of his coffin and the slow march to St. Alban's was arranged in the following order.

Firing party
Tyler with drawn sword.
Band.
Three pall-bearers, Gun carriage carrying the body. Three pall-bearers.
The late Sergeant's trooper led by two policemen.
Mourners from the Force.
Citizens on foot.
Carriages.

The band playing the solemn dead march, Inspector Norman gave the word and the slow and melancholy march of a mile was begun. On reaching the church the procession opened out. The body was slowly drawn up to the door where it was met by the Rev. Mr. Burton and the Masons in reverse order followed it into the church the organ performing Te Deum and Dies Illae.

Trains had been provided and immediately the church services were finished the funeral party drove to the beautiful little cemetery attached to St. Mary's, where the sublime burial service of the Church of England was read by the clergyman, followed by Dr. Bain, W.M. of Kinistino Lodge, reading a portion of the impressive masonic ritual. After the solemn ceremonies of the masonic burial service had been finished and the lamb skin and scroll deposited in the grave, the brethren marched around the place of interment each dropping upon the coffin his sprig of evergreen and exclaiming, "Alas my brother." The grand honors of masonry were given, the words, "The Almighty has taken his own," "so mote it be," were repeated, when Sergt. B. I. I., commanding the firing party gave the order, "Present Arms," and the action was completed without a single hitch. The order, "Fire" was then given and twenty Winchester's pressed against the shoulders of old comrades belched forth their last good bye.

The whole scene from leaving the Barracks was most impressive and impressive. The firing party with arms reversed, the glittering sword of the Tyler of the Lodge to which Sergt. Montgomery had belonged. The slow and solemn dead march being played by the band. The measured step of Masons in their draped regalia, the coffin wrapped in the flag of our country, which the deceased had served so well, the riderless trooper, the large concourse of commanding officers, comrades and friends and the strong evidences of grief displayed by all on their march and at the church and grave when, just as evening was drawing near, was laid to rest all that was mortal of one who in a land thousands of miles from his Lower Canadian home received the same consideration and respect as if he had been buried by his own kith and kin; loving hands prepared his body for burial, and kindly, sisterly sympathy adorned his coffin with a beautiful tribute of immortelles.

It will be some consolation to his friends in their far away home to know that in these northern latitudes the virtues of brotherly love and kindly sympathy are as warmly felt and as sincerely practiced as in any other part of the world, and Kinistino Lodge, A. F. & A. M., have given another striking proof of the brotherly love which exists among Masons the world over and they deserve the highest credit for the manner in which they observed the obsequies of Sergt. Montgomery, who so lately became one of them and was so soon removed by a violent death. The force, of which he was so bright a member, have the sympathy of every citizen in their bereavement. Sergt. Montgomery was the favorite of all and many a tear was dropped by officers and comrades.

Oh Death! Thou strange mysterious power, seen every day but never understood but by the uncommunicative dead. What art thou?

GENERAL NEWS.

MONTREAL, August 4.—To-day was the hottest of the season. Ninety in the shade was reached, and there were several cases of prostration among the laborers on the wharves.

A workman employed by the church of Notre Dame for ten years, fell from the tower to-day a distance of 130 feet and was instantly killed.

A man named Caron, an employee of Deschamps, grocer, Point St. Charles, de-camped to Chicago with $300 of his master's money.

Another large excursion party is in Montreal on its way to Alaska. It is recruited from New York and the New England States.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—In the Commons to night Sir James Fergusson stated that the Government had received reports that Armenia was greatly disturbed, but that the Government had no knowledge of any particular outrages. Until the Government was fully informed of the facts it could not make any representations to the Porte. Gladstone contended that the Government ought to make representations without delay. The Porte should be notified of the course which England would take toward the Anglo-Turkish agreement if the horrible massacre in Armenia continued.

Emperor William has signified his intention to present to Lord Salisbury a life-sized portrait of himself in recognition of his effort in bringing about the Anglo-German agreement.

It is stated that Emperor William will counter the order of the Black Eagle upon Lord Salisbury at the Queen will give her consent to it.

An accident occurred at Atherstone, Warwickshire, to-day injuring a large number of people, but providentially killing none. An immense grand stand had been erected from which to view the military tournament in progress at that place and at the time of the accident it was occupied by fifteen thousand people, while ten thousand more were closely packed on either side. Suddenly a crash was heard and a section of the grand stand fell to the ground, carrying with it over one thousand spectators. It was fortunate that the fall was not very great as many people might have been killed out as it was a large number were injured, some of them seriously. When the crash came the immense gathering became panic-stricken and trampled upon the prostrate ones in their frantic efforts to escape from danger, the extent of which they were not aware. Several cool-headed men were successful in allaying the fears of the fleeing ones, and turned many of them back to the assistance of the injured. Doctor Parke, surgeon of Stanley's expedition, was present, and he, with several local physicians, dressed the wounds of the injured.

THE DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.

The last issue of this pictorial paper is up to its usual standard of excellence—no slight praise. The scenes depicted, as usual, represent a considerable variety. One of the attractions of Montreal, Sommer Park, with Lavigne's Orchestra comes in for a good deal of attention and the illustrations are worth examining. This park is a relic of old Montreal modernized by enterprizes into a delightful place of recreation. The Great West is represented by Mount Burgess and Lake Emerald, a most effective picture after one of Norman's photographs. "The Kitten," by F. Viney, is an example of that artist's happiest style. The engraving is well worth preserving. The Ste. Anne's Regatta Scenes are opportune at this season. Altogether, a fine number. Address: The Dominion Illustrated, 73 St. James Street Montreal.

F. C. Baker is extending his store back about thirty feet and otherwise getting ready for the increased volume of business that is certain to come in a very short time. J. W. Hurd has the contract for the work and is making a good job of it.

It is reported that a down town editor was seen trying to catch a chain of lightning during yesterday's storm, and when questioned as to his intentions replied that it was needed for scientific purposes. It is generally believed that had he been successful Chorazin would never have been heard of again.

The following is a copy of an order published at Prince Albert on 10th of August, 1890, by the officer commanding N.W.M. Police, recording the death of Sergt. A. E. G. Montgomery. "It is with great sorrow that the officer commanding records the death of Reg. No. 487 Sergt. A. E. G. Montgomery, who died at this post on this date, from injuries received through a fall from his horse, on parade on the 7th inst. F. Division has lost one of its most highly esteemed and valuable non-commissioned officers, the N.W.M. Police, one who for ten years served it faithfully and well; and his comrades a loyal, honorable and true friend. All most equally deplore the sad and untimely end of Sergt. Montgomery."

F. C. Baker has just received a carload of flower from Winnipeg.

Have you tried the new game yet? "Berkshire Pigs." It just costs you $1 to learn it.

Every day brings the iron horse nearer to our doors, and before the end of the month railway communication with the outer world will be an accomplished fact. Graders are now working close to the station, and ties and iron are following up close behind. The station houses are being pushed rapidly ahead, and the grounds cleared up and put in shape.

The first number of the Carman Standard, has been received at this office. It is a well printed twenty-eight column paper, with well filled advertising columns. In politics it claims to be independent. It is edited by Mr. E. A. Barbank, and we have no doubt will be of great benefit to the Carman district, and we hope to see it prosper.

During the rain storm yesterday, the lightning was very vivid and the thunder quite heavy. During the storm lightning struck the big tree at the foot of the court house hill, knocking it down and completely shattering it. Mr. D. McGregor, who was on his way home at the time, had a narrow escape. He started to take shelter under the tree, but luckily changed his mind and went back to the pile of ties lying at the foot of the hill, and was an eye witness to the affair. Mr. McGregor is to be congratulated on his narrow escape.

A well-attended meeting of the subscribers and friends of the proposed Sioux mission was held in St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. The fact of it being mail night did not prevent the friends of the mission showing the interest they took in the scheme. A subscription list had been circulated among a number of the townspeople. It had met with a response beyond the expectation of the promoters of the scheme and warranted considerable discussion. A committee was appointed to ascertain the most secure basis on which the mission can be placed. A future meeting will decide the course to be adopted.
